Summary	Delhi School of Professional Studies & Research (DPSR) has been identified by Centre for Advanced Studies Research & Development (CASRD) unit of Delhi School of Professional Studies & Research (DPSR), Rohini, Delhi – 110085, an affiliated college of G.G.S. Indraprastha University, Dwarka, New Delhi which has been entrusted with the task of creating awareness among the minorities about the welfare schemes, being run for the minorities by the Ministry of Minority Affairs, Govt. of India, New Delhi for the upliftment of Economic & Social conditions of the minorities. The Ministry of Minority Affairs defines people belonging to minority communities as Muslim, Sikh, Jain, Boudh, Parsi, and Christian. For the above purpose, the major schemes of the Ministry of Minority Affairs include Nai Roshni, Learn & Earn, Padho Pardesh, USTTAD etc. under which the trainees belonging to minority communities as spelt out above are provided with financial assistance in the form of loans, grants, scholarships for studies in India & Abroad. The Ministry also helps the minorities to set up small businesses for which loans at very concessional rates are provided to the minorities & the repayment of the loans by the beneficiaries of the various schemes are to be made under very liberalized terms & conditions. It is to spread the awareness, understanding, and knowledge about the various schemes of the Ministry of Minority Affairs for the benefit of the minority community members that a two-day conference is proposed to be held on January 10 & 11, 2020 at Delhi School of Professional Studies & Research. The Conference organized by Delhi School of Professional Studies & Research (DPSR), Rohini, Delhi, under the umbrella of Centre for Advanced Studies Research & Development (CASRD) will also highlight the schemes offered by Delhi Govt. meant for minorities of the state.
