Summary	IQAC, DSPSR organized two-day National Seminar on the theme "Budget - 2021 for Atma Nirbhar India: A Critique", from 4th to 5th March, 2021. The seminar discussed issues related to the current year's Union Budget. It attempted to assess the current environment and debate the requirements of the future. The session started with the welcome address by Ms. Simran Kaur, Assistant Professor, DSPSR. Prof.G.S.Popli, Director, DSPSR, further appraised the topic of National Seminar to the audience, and to set the tone delivered the theme address wherein, he introduced the topic to all the faculty members. Prof. B. P. Singh, Chairman, DSPSR, raised the issue that some of the practices followed in Indian budgetary practices need immediate attention and relook, especially if fiscal prudence is the goal and budget is an important means towards that. Later faculty members presented their presentations in below mentioned order and each presentation was followed by interactive and constructive discussion. In the end, Prof. Popli delivered the Concluding Session by highlighting the micro and macro level implications of Union Budget 2021
