STUDENT DEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED BY UNNAYAN

Case Analysis and Experience Sharing:

In this session, a video clip based on the famous bestselling novel “Rich Dad Poor Dad” by Robert T. Kiyosaki, was shown and analyzed by the Convener, it depicted how the only son of a Professor (a highly qualified person with a Ph. D. degree) became one of the richest man of Miami, America, following the guidance, advice and inputs of his God father who was a successful business man and only class eight passed-out. The students watched the video with great interest and enthusiasm. To conclude the session the students were asked to highlight their understanding of the story. Students belonging to business class families shared interesting anecdotes and their experiences with the EDC members.

B.Com 4th semester student , Mr.Anil Kapoor sharing his experience with convener and EDC members.

Management Game Session

An Icebreaking session on Management Games was conducted to motivate and involve the newly inducted second and fourth semester students of BBA (G) and B.Com (H) in mid-April'2016. The purpose of this session was to enhance the decision making skills of the students through different puzzles and games.

During this session the role and activities of EDC were explained to new members of it.

Induction of New Batch (2016-19)

After a three month session break, the EDC starts it's regular programme with induction of new students taken admission in BBA and B.Com(H). At the start of the session a warm welcome was extended to the new batch (2016-19) of BBA and B.Com (H). A good number of new students, more than 40 of them have enrolled themselves as EDC Members in the year, 2016. Dr. Moloy Ghoshal in his talk emphasized and explained to the students why the young generation should focus more on setting up their own venture rather than seeking a job in corporate world. Video clips of budding entrepreneurs on how to make a beginning and where to start in entrepreneurship were shown and discussed in the session. The session concluded with the declaration of a Seminar to be held on “Entrepreneurship Development” in association with NIESBUD, Govt. of India, in the last week of September, 2016. Dr. Ankita Jain and Dr. Pratistha Boora, the co-conveners were also present and assisted in the smooth running of the session.
