Induction of New Batch (2018-21):

After a brief hiatus of three months, CED started its regular programme for the new Academic Session with induction of CED members from the fresh batch of BBA and B.Com (Hons.). The Session commenced with a warm welcome to the new batch (2018-21) students of BBA and B.Com (Hons.).

Dr. Moloy Ghoshal in his inaugural speech emphasized and explained to students why they should focus more on setting up their own venture rather than seeking a job in corporate world. He explained how Government of India is determined to promote Entrepreneurial skills amongst youth through its different schemes like Start-up India, Stand-up India, Skill India, Make in India, PMKVY, and Pradhan Mantri Mudra Yojna etc. Video clips of some successful start-ups were also shown and their success factors were discussed during the session. The session concluded with the announcement of a Seminar to be held on 11th September, 2018 on the topic, “Employer vs. Employee.”

Dr. Anupama Lakhera, the Co-Convener of CED shared her professional experience in the field of entrepreneurship, both at National & International level with CED members.

SEMINAR ON ENTREPRENEURSHIP:

A one day seminar was organized by CED-DSPSR on the topic ‘Business vs. Employment’ on 11/9/2018. Mr. Deepak Bajaj, successful Entrepreneur and motivational speaker cum trainer was welcomed by Dr. Moloy Ghoshal and Dr. Anupama Lakhera accompanied with a great round of applause by the students.

Mr. Deepak Bajaj is an Entrepreneur, Inspirational Speaker, Life-transformation coach, Success Trainer and International NLP specialist and working extensively for Entrepreneurship Development and Youth Empowerment.

The seminar was extensively interactive and students learned a lot about what is going on in today’s business world and how one can en-cash the opportunities to be one’s own boss.
