Summary	Rotaract Club of DSPSR organized a visit to National Bal Bhawan under scheme "Act of Kindness" for 30 underprivileged students of JJ Colony, on November 13, 2019. The students were accompanied by two faculty members and 20 volunteer students. National Bal Bhawan is an institution which aims to enhancing the creative potential of children by providing them with various activities, opportunities and common platform to interact, experiment, create and perform according to their age, aptitude and ability. Children visited the two museums, one showcased the life of rural India and the other depicted the life of Chacha Nehru. There was an aquarium which enthralled the children. They also enjoyed the train ride which took them to Bharat Darshan through pictorial representation of different states of India. Children also had fun sharing their lunch in the Bal Bhawan premises.
